impulses is published termly by Rudolf Steiner House to bring to your attention the many initiatives, activities and events inspired by the work of Rudolf Steiner in and around London.

Rudolf Steiner (1861–1925), the Austrian philosopher and spiritual scientist whose body of research he named 'anthroposophy' – 'the wisdom of the human being' – was far ahead of his time. His concerns about the future of humanity gave rise to new insights and impulses in many fields of life. They are as innovative now as they were then, and have become even more relevant in the light of the unprecedented challenges humanity faces today. At the heart of Steiner's research were the questions: What makes our endeavours truly human? How can we reconnect with our spiritual origin in ways appropriate for our time? How can we – individually and in human fellowship – reach our highest potential and live respectfully with all the other realms of nature? His ideas have influenced fields as diverse as meditation; personal, social and organisational development; education; agriculture; art and architecture; health and wellbeing; natural science; the performing arts; economics – to name a few.

You are warmly welcome to visit Rudolf Steiner House and be inspired by our varied programme, and enjoy our library, bookshop and café – or simply the peaceful atmosphere of the House, which has often been described as a special oasis in the hustle and bustle of the metropolis.

The Profundity of Fairy Tales With Wim Wolbrink

2nd May

Fairy tales are not just entertaining stories for children, they carry insights into the depths of the human soul. Looking at some of Grimm's tales we will see what gifts they contain. We will also do some exercises, and by observing what we are actually doing during the exercises we will explore our own souls.

Wim Wolbrink is the director of the Dutch National Storytelling School. A storyteller and storytelling teacher for more than 20 years, he organises storytelling festivals and workshops mainly in Japan, Belgium, UK and the Netherlands. Through organising festivals, he brought thousands of people together around certain themes such as Freedom, the Threefold Social Order and Karma and Reincarnation. www.nationalevertelschool.nl

Esoteric Constitution – Your Seven Bodies With Alex Wright

9th May

People are different, sometimes in obvious ways, others in ways less easy to define. We are much more than just our physical bodies. Come and hear about things that are real and fundamentally important about us to gain clarity on our non-physical aspects and how to help them thrive. Alex Wright has an MA in Law from Oxford University, is a qualified Steiner Waldorf Class Teacher and a graduate of the three-year Emerson Visual Arts Course.

Making and Using the Biodynamic Preparations With Aaron Mirkin

16th May

A talk with slides showing the making of the biodynamic preparations and describing the basic principles and practices of their use. In addition, there will be a brief overview of the principles and practices of good compost making and the application of the preparation. We will finish by making a biodynamic tree paste that participants can take home and use. To this end, participants should please bring along a one litre open container of some kind (lid is not essential).

After some years as a Chemical Engineer in the petroleum industry, Aaron worked as a farmer for nine years at a Camphill Community for adults with special needs near Cape Town trying to put biodynamic principles into practice. He now works as a priest of the Christian Community in Stroud but continues to make compost and use the biodynamic preparations wherever he can.

Human and Planetary Evolution With Alex Wright

23rd May

As a highly developed clairvoyant, Rudolf Steiner was able to research the very earliest incarnations of both humanity and the planet. His very detailed report throws much light on spiritual processes underway in our solar system and gives us a picture both of the journey we as a species have made, as well as what lies in store for us in the future. Alex Wright (see Bio on page 4)

Fundamental forces in Humanity and Nature With Alex Wright

30th May

Anyone watching wildlife documentaries will be well aware of the evolutionary role played by lions on migrating antelopes. For humans the situation is subtler. Come and hear about some of the hidden factors which guide human life to help you gain insight in the journey of your life. Alex Wright

Creating Spiritual Community to Meet Early Years Education and the Waldorf Movement in the 21st Century With Hannah Roberts

6th June

How to build a sustainable Waldorf Kindergarten model which serves not only the young child but family and community too. A new way of working with money and building honest relationships in light of our current climate. Hannah Roberts is the founder of Robin's Nest, an innovative and progressive Waldorf Kindergarten based on the grounds of Emerson college. https://www.robinsnest.org.uk/

Wisdom of the Bees With Christian Gruetzmacher

13th June

An exploration into the evolution of Honey Bee Culture from Adam and Eve to now and beyond. In ancient cultures Bees were venerated as messengers of the gods, and the Egyptians sacrificed large quantities of bee products from their large-scale beekeeping in rituals but also used it in medicine and for mummifying. Now we dissect them and analyse them under the microscope and excel at the art of manipulative beekeeping. Is Honey Bee Culture throughout the ages mirroring the evolution of consciousness? And what will we do next? Christian has lived with Honey Bees since 2006. His journey took him along various alternative and some conventional beekeeping experiences. He has focused on teaching about, designing, building and setting up hives and public gardens for Honey Bees. At Oakbrook Farm Stroud he currently develops a public Bee-Observatory (bee-observatory.org).

Spirit and Architecture

With Richard Coleman 30th April

In this talk, Richard will reflect on architecture from a non-religious standpoint and explain why Rudolf Steiner's Anthroposophy has supported his understanding and experience of 'spirit' and its application in his collaborations with top architects on complex and sensitive designs in London, Dublin and Brighton.

For nearly 40 years Richard Coleman has lived with the imagination of a spiritual

Who am I? & Who are you? Questions of Gender Identity With Andrew Wolpert 28th May

Gender dysphoria and gender fluidity are everyday topics in public culture, mainstream social studies, psychology and medicine. Open discussion of these phenomena is often inhibited by either dogmatic political correctness or no less dogmatic and indignant prejudice. How can we understand these prevalent issues of gender and sexuality in the context of spiritual science?

In the panorama of our unfinished human evolution can we discern in these phenomena a striving for individual identity, not just beyond culture, race, and religion, but also beyond gender? Can we recognise beyond the excessive sexualisation and hedonism of our modern culture, that there are spiritually striving individuals yearning for human communion that does not conform to inherited norms?

Andrew Wolpert has worked at Emerson College, and at the University in Stuttgart giving courses, seminars and lectures on Renaissance Art, Shakespeare, Parzival, anthroposophical Christology and Gender Studies in Europe, Asia and Australia.

5G: Cause for Concern With Jeremy Naydler 25th June

Unlike previous generations of mobile networks, the next generation of wireless interconnectivity, referred to as 5G or "fifth generation", is not just about enhancing existing technologies through faster connections and bigger data transfer capacity. It will require the constant irradiation of the Earth, both at ground level and from satellites in space, with extremely high frequency electromagnetic radiation. This new radiation blanket will be part of a coordinated global effort to establish an "electronic ecosystem", planetary in extent, which will support the growth of artificial intelligence systems and the "Internet of Things", in order to create a so-called "smart planet". In this talk, Jeremy Naydler will present reasons why we should be concerned and what, if anything, we can do to alleviate the impact of the ongoing technological revolution.

Jeremy Naydler, Ph.D., is a philosopher, cultural historian and gardener who lives and works in Oxford, England. He has long been interested in the history of consciousness and is also deeply concerned about the impact of electronic technologies on our inner life and on our relationship to nature. His most recent book, 'In the Shadow of the Machine: The Prehistory of the Computer and the Evolution of Consciousness', is published by Temple Lodge (2018).

MONDAYS

Karmic Relationships, Volume 1

With Trevor Dance 6th & 20th May; 3rd & 17th June 1st & 15th July 7.00 – 8.30pm

This profoundly esoteric series of lectures examines the underlying laws inherent in reincarnation and karma and explores, in detail, successive incarnations of specific historical figures. All are very welcome to join our lively group for this unique opportunity to study these revealing insights together.

Our summer programme offers the chance to join the group from the very beginning of the series, but newcomers are very welcome anytime.

The Temple Legend

With Dr Sue Peat and Adrian Hotten 13th & 27th May; 10th & 24th June 8th July 7.00 – 8.30pm

We will be continuing with the lectures given to members of Rudolf Steiner's first Esoteric School between 1904 and 1906. They throw light on the content of the picture-language of myths, sagas and legends. Pictures, Steiner explains, are the real origin of all things – the primeval spiritual causes. In order to work with pictures or symbols today we first need to become acquainted with their esoteric content. He gave these lectures as a necessary preparation for the planned second section of his Esoteric School, which was to deal in a direct way with a renewal of ritual and symbolism. They clarify the history and nature of the cultic tradition including principally Freemasonry and its background, but also the Rosicrucians, Manichaeism, the Druids, the Prometheus Saga, the Lost Temple, Cain and Abel – and much else besides.

TUESDAYS

At the Gates of Spiritual Science

With Brendan McQuillan 21st May; 4th & 18th June 2nd & 16th July 7.15 – 8.45pm

These Stuttgart lectures are an extremely accessible introduction to the ideas and content of spiritual science and form an excellent and concise complement to Steiner's basic written works, such as Theosophy and Cosmic Memory. They cover the nature of the human being, the three worlds, life after death, karma, the evolutionary epochs, and the path of inner development.

WEDNESDAYS

The Riddles of Philosophy

With Trevor Dance 8th & 22nd May; 5th & 19th June 3rd & 17th July 2.00 – 4.00pm

The group continues with our study of this Steiner masterwork in which he affords the reader lofty insights into the ideas of western philosophy and the underpinnings of anthroposophy. Much more than a straightforward history, the book penetrates the spiritual impulses themselves which underlie the works of the great thinkers. Now is a good time to join us as we examine the ideas of the nineteenth century philosophers and thinkers like Darwin who still influence people today. No prior knowledge of the book is required.

Background to the Gospel of St Mark

With William Bishop May 15th & 29th; June 12th & 26th July 10th 2.00 – 4.00pm

We will be continuing with these lectures by Rudolf Steiner from 1910 – 1911. They give a wide-ranging context for a deep understanding of the profound truths in the Gospel according to St. Mark.

The Spiritual Beings in the Heavenly Bodies and in the Kingdoms of Nature

With Brendan McQuillan May 22nd; June 5th & 19th July 3rd & 17th 4.15 – 6.00pm

These lectures from Helsinki encompass the intimacy of the elementals all the way to the sublimity of the Seraphim and consider the relationships of the spiritual beings of the hierarchies to individual planets and their moons, to the sun and to comets. All set against the cosmic backdrop of other solar systems, and in the context of the reciprocal natures of human being and cosmos.

With the help of sketches and selected readings we will take a detailed look at the cosmic relationships of the various spiritual beings.

Essential Steiner – A Reading and Conversation Group

With David Lowe Wednesdays Weekly from May 8th until July 10th 7.15 – 8.45pm

One of the most essential of Steiner's lectures and not just for teachers, is the second lecture of the series entitled The Study of Man, given as part of the preparation for teachers of the first Waldorf school in Stuttgart. It explores in a comprehensive way the relationship between our thinking, our feeling, and our life of will. This is central not only to a healthy view of the human being but is the key to how we can deal with the unhealthy social life of our time. This lecture provides the cornerstone of our theme for the term.

Psychology – A Summer Reading and Conversation Group

With David Lowe Wednesdays Weekly from July 17th to Aug 7th and Sept 4th to 25th 7.15 – 8.45pm

Regular members of the Wednesday group - Adam, Fateh, Jenny, Michael, and Simon along with others, will make contributions to the theme. The subjects will include: Benefits of Meditation; Psychology and the Occult; Spiritual Science and Psychology.

Each week we will read a passage from Goethe's Tale of the Green Snake and the Beautiful Lily.

Further information will be available at the end of June, please check the RSH website.

FRIDAY SEMINARS AND LECTURES

7.00–8.30pm at Rudolf Steiner House

COMMUNITY

We could consider that the real reason for us, as spiritual beings, incarnating into physical bodies is that we meet each other. We all belong to communities of relatives, friends, specialist interest groups and of course the community of the human race. During this series of seminars we will consider how we can develop a deeper understanding of our connections with each other.

All welcome! Suggested donation £5.00 / £3.00

For further information please see meetup.com/rudolf-steiner-spiritual-science

The Family

With Julia Dvinskaya 17th May

How can we work with family bonds in a time when the concept of 'family' becomes ever more complex? Do we choose our 'family' as part of our pre-birth intention? What do we have to do with each other, even across several generations, and is there a formula for a good family community? Looking at who we are in our family, in its past, present and future, is helpful for understanding our life tasks. Julia will illustrate her talk with experience gained from working as a counsellor.

Julia Dvinskaya Dip.Biog.Counselling, Reg. MBACP (Accred) offers biographical counselling and biography work in the London area. She gives talks and seminars to the general public and professionals. www.mylifeandicounselling.com

The Scientific Community

With Dr. Simon Pelling 24th May

As well as our social circle at one end of the scale and the nation at the other, we belong to institutions such as companies and societies. What does Steiner have to say about, in particular, the scientific community and its effect on scientists and civilization since the 19th century? Science is a very self-confident and disciplined profession and, like the church in the middle ages, it has the 'true faith' and dominates and unifies intellectual life. Why is it so successful, what is its character and outlook, can we get a perspective on it, why is it so hostile to alternatives and what is the ultimate purpose of the collectivity of scientists?

Simon Pelling has a PhD in theoretical physics. He has worked as an electrical engineer and maths lecturer. He has a long term interest in Rudolf Steiner's work and the link between earth mysteries, spirituality and science.

Freedom and Friendship: Society in a Material World

With Angus Jenkinson 31st May

Each individual is in search of their own individuality and freedom of selfexpression. But if we take the wrong route we end up divided. When we project our isolation into the world we create a world of isolation which reflects back upon us. Drawing on such diverse themes as the Grail legend, Facebook, the jewelled net of Indra, and Steiner's philosophy of thinking, it weaves a picture of the challenge and opportunity of contemporary community. Angus Jenkinson is a business leader, independent research scholar, photographer and author of several books. He is currently developing a new theory of organisations.

A Michaelic Approach to Community

Denise Gell and Adam Slowikowski 14th June

Is there a new and ideal way to build community? The evening will begin with Denise leading us into an experience of harmonious community. All are welcome to watch or join in as we form a community following the gentle movements of eurythmy. Adam will outline Rudolf Steiner's insights into the concept of a threefold Michaelic community and how this contrasts with the communities we are part of in present day society.

Denise Gell is a eurythmy therapist who has taught and performed eurythmy in a variety of settings for over 20 years. She offers eurythmy therapy on a one to one basis. Adam Slowikowski has a major interest in psychology. For enquiries text Denise on 07 904 858 081

Earthly and Cosmic Community – Today and for the Future

With Eric Klein 21st June

Community building as an artistic, musical, creative endeavour is essential for the future evolution of humanity. This is a community that includes the spiritual beings who have created us and stand fully behind our development. It is only in community that beings of the higher hierarchies can find us and join us. This must by necessity be a creative activity in all its aspects. Recognising, loving and trusting the activity of spiritual beings who offer themselves in sacrifice for our wellbeing leads us to a profound experience of gratitude and gives us insights into how the future can be formed.

Eric Klein was born in the USA and studied music. He is a violinist and teacher with a particular interest in the development of human thought.

Materialism, Social Process and Mental Health

Dr. Pablo Jeczmien 28th June

Increased use of technology has had a dramatic effect on how we relate to each other. We now often 'meet' on Skype and have 'friends' on social media that we have never physically met. Often internationally known individuals share intimate details of their lives with millions of 'followers'. The effect of excessive use of social media on social process and mental health is becoming well known – having both antisocial and social consequences. Pablo will explore how the insights of Rudolf Steiner can help us understand and work with the effects that increasing materialism is bringing to the world.

Dr. Pablo Jeczmien is a consultant psychiatrist and anthroposophical psychotherapist working within the NHS and privately. He has a comprehensive knowledge of anthroposophic medicine.

The Individual in Community

With Graham Kennish 12th July

There is an inherent tension between individuality and 'togetherness', whether by way of intimate relationships, family constellations, professional groupings or in spiritual and social communities. As individuals in any community, that tension can become a fruitful path towards selflessness, love and inner freedom, or spiral into dependency, domination and even cult-like obedience. Graham engaged with many of the spiritual and selfdevelopment paths of the 60s, entered Waldorf teaching, family life and something of Camphill. These experiences enabled him to develop a deeper understanding of Rudolf Steiner's image of the inner life of soul which he will share.

Graham Kennish gives workshops in Goethean Psychology, teaching a practical observation of the soul through gesture, by which an individual can strengthen the power of Empathy, the faculty by which we can enter more deeply, but more freely, into community relationships.

Working in Community with the Spiritual World

With Philip Martyn 19th July How do we work with our Angel, the dead and nature spirits? We are always surrounded by a whole host of spiritual beings that we usually do not see because our eyes are for the physical world. None the less, these beings influence us and our surroundings. Working with the insights Rudolf Steiner gave Philip Martyn will describe these beings and give examples of how we can develop an understanding of them and work in community with them.

Philip Martyn is a retired lawyer, who served on the council of the Anthroposophical Society in Great Britain and as Co-General Secretary

MONTHLY ART TALKS

with David Lowe

7.30-8.45pm

This series of illustrated art talks draws on the insights of Rudolf Steiner to deepen our appreciation of the significance of great works of art.

All welcome! No need to book. Suggested donation £5.00 / £3.00

Leonardo, his Paintings and Drawings

10th May

We will be looking closely at many of Leonardo's paintings and sharing our observations and thoughts. We will also look at some of his drawings. Not only figure drawings and drawings from nature, even his engineering drawings are works of astonishing beauty, such as his observations of water flowing through a weir.

Leonardo's Life and Work

7th June

What do Leonardo's life and work tell us about his previous incarnations? The inspirational role he played for so many artists in the Renaissance including Bramante, Michelangelo and Raphael, and the respect in which they held him, gives us a different way to approach Rudolf Steiner's comment that behind Leonardo and working through him was one of the greatest initiates of all time. We will try to unravel some of the mysteries behind the personality who lived from 1452 to 1519.

Ruskin and Turner

5th July

In this anniversary year of Ruskin's birth, it may be appropriate to consider the importance of his relationship to Turner in the wider context of his life. Ruskin championed Turner's work at a time when it was losing favour with critics and public alike. He ushered in the final and greatest period of Turner's work which is still not fully understood. We will read from Ruskin's writings and show the paintings referred to. Ruskin's words can still help us to find a way in to the paintings such as few other commentators on Turner can do. An introduction to Ruskin's life given by Simon Pelling will begin the evening.

MYSTERY DRAMA READING

With Trevor Dance Saturday 8th June 2.00 – 6.30pm

All welcome, no need to book. £5.00 / £3.00

Steiner's dramas are primarily teaching vehicles and he expected us to work with the plays. Such work gives us a deep insight into the working of reincarnation and karma and shows us the workings of Lucifer and Ahriman and the threefold nature of the soul forces, in our thinking, feeling and willing. Trevor Dance is an experienced facilitator of the Mystery Drama readings at Steiner House. A writer and printmaker with an extensive interest in the arts.

AN INTRODUCTION TO GARDENING THE BIODYNAMIC WAY With Dr Sue Peat and Philip Martyn

Sunday 23rd June 2.00 - 5.00pm

All welcome, no need to book. £10.00 / £ 5.00

Biodynamics is an organic method of cultivation, arising out of Rudolf Steiner's spiritual research. The workshop will cover the background to the biodynamic planting calendar, composting and the biodynamic preparations. Participants will be invited to exchange seasonal gardening tips, ideas and experiences. For the last hour we will stir the horn manure preparation (known as 500), so bring an empty screw top bottle if you want to take some home. A 500ml bottle is enough for an average garden. The workshop is suitable for those new to biodynamics and for anyone who would like to give their garden, window boxes or house plants a summer treat!

Philip Martyn and Dr Sue Peat are long term students of Rudolf Steiner. Philip is a retired lawyer and has previously served as cogeneral secretary of the Anthroposophical Society in Great Britain. Sue is a medical consultant at Kings College Hospital.

PARZIVAL STUDIES

With Josie Alwyn, Simon Blaxland-de Lange, William Forward, Steve Roberts, Andrew Wolpert Sunday 28th July 11am – 6pm

We met in December 2018 to share questions and aspects of our ongoing work with Wolfram's epic. Some of the themes we looked at were Parzival's horses, the identity of Ither and of Gramoflanz, what it means to be a virgin-widow, the significance of the moment Parzival hears about his brother, the connection to Manes, the need for new Waldorf Upper School teachers to be guided into this work, and how this epic has influenced modern literature. We felt we had begun something worthwhile phenomena a striving for individual identity, not just beyond culture, race, and religion, but also beyond gender? Can we recognise beyond the excessive sexualisation and hedonism of our modern culture, that there are spiritually striving individuals yearning for human communion that does not conform to inherited norms?

Questions of gender identity arise now for many people in the wider context of experiencing a kind of "homelessness" in terms of family, nationality, religion and ideals. The significance and consequences of the division of the sexes, the way masculinity and femininity come to expression in the soul, the nature of the human reproductive process and the human urge for creativity, the connection between Eros and the Logos, the forces of reproduction and the creative potential of language are all relevant considerations in this field of study.

Andrew Wolpert has worked at Emerson College, and at the University in Stuttgart giving courses, seminars and lectures on Renaissance Art, Shakespeare, Parzival, anthroposophical Christology and Gender Studies in Europe, Asia and Australia.

THE SPIRIT OF ENGLISH THE MATTER OF BRITAIN AND ITS DESTINY THE HERITAGE OF ARTHUR AND THE POTENTIAL OF THE KNOWL-EDGE OF THE GRAIL

With Andrew Wolpert

29th July – 2nd August , 9am–4pm each day at Rudolf Steiner House

What secrets lie in the rocks, the hills, the caves, the valleys, the forests, and the rivers of Britain? What traces of the ancient, Irish culture and the Hibernian Mysteries can we discern in our yearning now to know the meaning of life and of our lives? How do the megalithic monuments, the Celtic heritage and legends of Arthur live in our consciousness? What does Blake mean when he asks if those feet in ancient time walked on our mountains green? Why was it to Britain that Joseph of Arimathea brought the cup that had sustained him? What happened to the Celtic Soul while the Romans occupied this island? What is this distillation of so many languages that became the English we know today? Why did materialism take such root in England? What were the themes that Rudolf Steiner spoke about during his visits to England? How do the present political and narrow-minded nationalist interests constrain a vision of what our island identity is? Why did you choose to be born wherever you were born? What does the land of your birth give you, and what is it waiting for from you?

The fallen nature of language and maybe particularly of English, the seemingly unavoidable pervasiveness of materialism, and developments such as nanotechnology and transhumanism do indeed threaten our unfinished human evolution. All this, together with the exploitation, brutality, injustice, oppression, discrimination, suffering and want that are visible everywhere on a global scale are severe challenges to a not-yet-lost vision of what the human being can be and how we can live together. That vision lives as an attainable reality in what Rudolf Steiner described as Knowledge of the Grail, a term he used again and again at the end of his book Occult Science, synonymous with what anthroposophy can become when we live it. The metamorphosis of Britain's Arthur and his reflective relationship to the Sun is our world responsibility actively to bring about a new relationship between the Earth and the Sun.

This Summer Course will be an opportunity to work together on all of these themes.

Fee: £400

INNER LIGHT AND STRENGTH NURTURING SEEDS OF SPIRITUAL RENEWAL Summer Conference of the Anthroposophical Society in Great Britain 31st July – 4th August 2019 at Emerson College, Forest Row, East Sussex

Everyone Welcome!

Following last summer's conference, in which we took a deep look at the threat to our humanity which artificial intelligence poses, we are planning this year to focus our attention on that which we can do as individuals to create a counterbalance.

How can we cultivate inner light, engender inner warmth and find our inner strength? How can we become inwardly more active, practising a king of 'inner activism' in the face of the challenges of our times? And finally, how can this become the basis for a stronger community life?

This year our speakers will be Dr James Dyson, Marah Evans, Jeremy Naydler and Ian Trousdell. As usual, there will be talks, artistic workshops, workshops on various aspects of the inner path, small group conversations, and plenty of opportunity for encounters and for enjoying the lovely campus of Emerson College.

The full brochure will soon be available from Rudolf Steiner House and Emerson College and can also be downloaded from their websites.

For details and bookings please contact Emerson College, Forest Row, East Sussex RH18 5JX

The Essence of Non-Duality

"Meditation is what we are, not what we do; the separate self is what we do, not what we are."

2019 Evening Meetings at Rudolf Steiner House

£10 admission - online booking recommended due to high demand

Friday 5 April 7pm – 9pm Friday 10 May 7pm – 9pm Friday 7 June 7pm – 9pm Friday 5 July 7pm – 9pm

In his meetings, Rupert explores the perennial, non-dual understanding that lies at the heart of all the great religious and spiritual traditions, such as Advaita Vedanta, Kashmir Shaivism, Hinduism, Buddhism, mystical Christianity, Sufism and Zen, and which is also the direct, ever-present reality of our own experience.

This is a contemporary, experiential approach involving silent meditation, guided meditation and conversation, and requires no affiliation to any particular religious or spiritual tradition. All that is needed is an interest in the essential nature of experience, and in the longing for love, peace and happiness around which most of our lives revolve.

CONFERENCES & MEDITATION WHEN BUDDHA MET CHRIST FRIDAY 3rd& 10TH MAY 2019: 6.30 pm – 8 pm Limited spaces available please register via: $\colored{1}$ 0777 533 1972 $\lored{2}$ info@essenenation.co.uk

What would Jesus say to Buddha, or how would Buddha relate to Christ? This is an answer from an Esoteric (Mystical) Christian perspective. The Essene tradition, at one time synonymous with the Cathars and protected by the Knights Templars, has a rich history which reaches back into antiquity, predating the birth of Jesus. With deep roots in Paganism and the old Mystery traditions it is ideally placed to join the dots, and bring two great Spiritual streams together in union.

Loic Albisetti is a direct student of Essene Master (Living Buddha) Olivier Manitara, who himself counts Rudolf Steiner as one of his foremost teachers. Loic is delighted to be coming to Steiner House, a home of the teacher of his teacher.
